

LEVEL ONE

LEARN IN YOUR CAR® CD ITALIAN

by Henry N. Raymond

Learn In Your Car — Italian is the only language learning system designed to teach a foreign language in your car as you drive, without the aid of a textbook. This booklet contains the entire recorded text for your reference so that you can see how the words are spelled. This booklet also contains additional explanations which will be helpful to you if you have trouble understanding some of the concepts.

ABOUT THIS COURSE

Learn In Your Car — Italian is designed and organized with the traveler in mind. The following guidelines are used:

1. The basic premise is that communicating in a language requires learning words, phrases, and sentences: but you can't learn to communicate effectively in a language unless you know the individual meaning of each word.
2. The emphasis is on communication. Words, phrases, or sentences can be used to communicate. It is not always necessary to use a complete sentence to convey a thought.
3. It teaches the way a child learns. Children start by learning one-word sentences, then two-word sentences, etc.
4. It teaches the most important things first. This course does not use your valuable memory to store useless words. The important words you need to survive and get around are taught first. Grammar is introduced in the later lessons, but it is taught with examples rather than rules.
5. No more than one new word is introduced at a time. This means you won't hear a sentence or a phrase and wonder which sound corresponds to which word.

6. No textbook is required. The fact that no more than one new word is introduced at a time enables you to use the CDs effectively without referring to a textbook. The CDs are designed to be used without a textbook so that you can use them while driving a car or while doing other things which require similar amounts of concentration.

7. Literal (word-for-word) translations are used as much as possible. This enables you to understand how a sentence or phrase is constructed and what the individual words mean.

HOW TO USE “LEARN IN YOUR CAR — ITALIAN”

The lessons start immediately at the beginning of Disc One with no introduction so that you don't have to listen to the same introduction over and over again.

Simply start the first disc and play through Lesson One. For each expression, you will hear the English version followed by a pause, then the Italian translation followed by a pause, then the Italian translation a second time followed by a third pause. At first, you will only be able to imitate the Italian words in the two pauses after the Italian translations (the second and third pauses). As you learn and progress, you will be able to recall and recite the Italian version during the first pause before you hear the first Italian translation. Be sure to speak the Italian expressions out loud. The rate at which you learn will be significantly slower if you do not speak the Italian expressions aloud.

Play Lesson One several times until you learn most of it. Then start playing Lesson One followed by Lesson Two until you learn most of Lesson Two. As you progress, keep adding lessons. Always go back to the beginning of Lesson One to reinforce the material you have already learned. (As you progress through the material, you may want to restart at some place other than the very beginning of the first disc. This is fine as long as you know all the material ahead of your starting point. Later lessons are designed with the assumption that you already know the material in earlier lessons.)

NOTES ABOUT THE TEXT

- Words which are underlined in phrases in the text have the same meaning in both English and Italian. When a new word is introduced, it will usually be underlined.
- Literal translations are in parentheses with an “L.” such as: “(L. This is a literal translation)”
- Words in brackets [like this] are understood, but are not heard on the tapes.

NOTES ABOUT THE CDs

- The CD format, with each lesson on a separate track, allows you to instantly target the exact lesson you wish to review. The disc and track numbers for each lesson are listed in the Table of Contents.
- The Italian and English translations are on separate channels. If you wish to hear only the Italian translations, simply adjust the balance control of your CD player so that you hear only the Italian version.

good evening	buona sera
good night	buona notte
good-bye	arrivederci
hello / good-by	ciao
please	per favore / per piacere
thank you	grazie
you’re welcome / please	prego
yes	sì
no	no
sir / Mr.	signore / signor
madam / Mrs.	signora

1

miss signorina

“tu” = Familiar “you” singular, used in casual conversation.

“Lei” = polite “you” used with strangers or to be polite.

“voi” = familiar and polite “you” plural as in “you guys” or “you all”. This form is used as a plural for both “tu” and “Lei”.

“Lei” (polite “you”) is often capitalized to distinguish it from “lei” (she), but it is not necessary.

The pronoun “Loro” (capitalized) is also used as a very formal “you” plural, however this usage is very rare in modern Italian.

The subject pronoun “it” is almost never used in Italian. Instead, a sentence will simply start with a verb. The subject pronoun “it” is implied by the form (conjugation) of the verb that is used along with the context of the rest of the sentence.

LESSON 2

BASIC PHRASES – LOCUZIONI DI BASE

I want	Io voglio ...
I don't want	Io non voglio.
Where?	Dove?
Where is ? / Where is it?	Dov'è?
Where is the toilet?/ Where is the bathroom ?	Dov'è il bagno ?
How much?	Quanto?
How much does it cost? (L. How much costs ?)	Quanto costa ?
time / hour	ora
... what time? / ... which hour? che ora?

At what time?	A che ora?
You have ... (polite)	Lei ha...
Do you have ...? (L. Have [you]...?)	Ha...?
I understand	Io capisco .
I don't understand.	Io non capisco.
Do you understand ?	Lei capisce ?
It is.....	È...
Is it...?	È...?

Subject pronouns (io, tu, lui, lei, Lei, noi, voi, loro, Loro) generally are not required to be used in sentences. This is because the subject pronoun can be determined by simply observing which form or conjugation of the verb is used. (i.e. The verb will change depending on which subject pronoun is being referred to.)

In Italian, all nouns have a gender. That is, they are considered masculine or feminine. The articles “the”, “a”, or “an” which are used to help specify nouns must agree in gender with the nouns. Above you see the articles “il” and “un” used with masculine nouns and the articles “la” and “una” used with feminine nouns. Articles must agree in number (singular or plural) with their nouns. The plural of “il” is “i”, and the plural of “la” is “le” as shown in the above examples.

“il” (masculine) changes to “i” before masculine nouns beginning with vowels, and to “lo” before masculine nouns beginning with “z”, or “s + consonant”. The plural of “i” and “lo” is “gli”.

“la” (feminine) changes to “l” before feminine nouns beginning with vowels. The plural of “la” and “l” (feminine) is “le”.

“un” (masculine) changes to “uno” before masculine nouns beginning with “z” or “s + consonant”

“una” (feminine) changes to “un” before feminine nouns beginning with vowels.

“dell’autobus” = “di” + “il” + “autobus” = “of the bus”

LESSON 4 TRANSPORTATION PHRASES – FRASI NEI TRASPORTI

Where is the train station?	Dov'è la stazione ferroviaria?
to the train station , please	alla stazione ferroviaria, per favore
to the airport , please	all'aeroporto, per favore
I want a taxi.	Io voglio un tassì.
I would like	Io vorrei ... / Vorrei ...
I would like a ticket	Vorrei un biglietto .
A ticket to... / A ticket for	Un biglietto per ...

a timetable / a schedule	un orario
the first train	il primo treno
the second train	il secondo treno
the next train	il prossimo treno
the last train	l' ultimo treno

6

“alla” = “a” + “la”

“all’aeroporto” = “a” + “il” + “aeroporto”

In Italian, the use of subject pronouns (I, you, he, she, it, we, you guys, they) is optional. This is because the subject pronoun can be determined by which conjugation of the verb is used. In the examples above, since “vorrei” can only be used with “io” (“io” = “I”), it is not necessary to say “Io vorrei...” because “io” is understood.

“Vorrei” in English means “I would like”. The literal translation is “I would want”. “Vorrei” is much more polite and should be used instead of “voglio” whenever possible.

LESSON 5 MONEY – DENARO

the money	il denaro / i soldi
Italian money	denaro italiano

In this lesson there are some examples of words which are almost identical except for the last letter. In general, masculine nouns and adjectives end in “o” and feminine nouns and adjectives end in “a”. Nouns ending in “e” can be either masculine or feminine.

To form the plural of regular nouns ending in “a”, replace the “a” with an “e”. To form the plural of regular nouns ending in “o” or “e”, replace the last letter with an “i”.

I'm looking for... ..	Cerco...
No, not like that	No, non così .
Thank you , sir.	Grazie , signore.

In Italian, adjectives must agree with the word they modify in both gender (masculine or feminine) and number (singular or plural). For example, “piccolo” would become “piccola” if it were modifying a feminine noun. It would become “piccoli” or “piccole” (depending on gender) if it were modifying a plural noun.

The demonstrative pronouns shown above (this, that, these, those) are shown in their masculine forms. When these words are used to describe feminine objects, then the appropriate feminine pronoun must be used:

	Masculine	Feminine
this	questo	questa
that	quello	quella
these	questi	queste
those	quelli	quelle

26

English	inglese
American	americano (americana)
British	britannico (britannica)
Italian	italiano (italiana)
tall / high	alto (alta)
short / low	basso (bassa)

Remember, adjectives must agree in number (singular or plural) and gender (masculine or feminine) with the words they modify. The feminine forms of the adjectives are shown in parentheses.

In general, adjectives which end in “o” (masculine, singular) end in the following letters:

	Singular	Plural
Masculine	-o	-i
Feminine	-a	-e

The endings of adjectives which end in “e” (masculine, singular) generally follow this format:

	Singular	Plural
Masculine	-e	-i
Feminine	-e	-i

LESSON 21

VERBS – VERBI

to be	essere
to have	avere
to want	volere
to go	andare

27

to do / to make	fare
to eat	mangiare
to drink	bere
to buy	comprare / acquistare
to sell	vendere
to rent	affittare / noleggiare
to pay / to pay for	pagare
to see	vedere
to look at	guardare
to look for	cercare
to know something / to know how	sapere
to know someone or some place	conoscere
to understand	capire / comprendere
to come	venire
to stay / to be located	stare
to write	scrivere
to close	chiudere
to open	aprire
to learn	imparare / apprendere
to arrive	arrivare
to leave / to depart	partire
to leave something somewhere	lasciare
to say	dire
to speak	parlare
to lose	perdere

28

to steal / to rob	rubare
to study	studiare
to stop	fermare
to like	piacere
to love	amare
to live	vivere
to cost	costare
to sleep	dormire
to cut	tagliare
to take	prendere
to finish / to end	finire
to travel	viaggiare
to be able to (as in "can" or "may")	potere
to have to (as in "should" or "must")	dovere
to need / to have need of	aver bisogno di
to mean / to signify	significare
to mean / to intend	intendere
to mean / to want to say	voler dire
to repeat	ripetere

These are the infinitive forms of these verbs (i.e. to be, to go, to see, etc.). To speak correctly you need to use the correct form (conjugation) of the verb. If you don't know the correct conjugation, use the infinitive. You will most likely be understood.

In most smaller dictionaries, only the infinitive form of a verb is listed. (In English, the infinitive form is listed without the "to".) For example, in a small English dictionary, you would find "eat", but most likely wouldn't find "ate", "eaten", "eats", etc.

29

LESSON 23

PREPOSITIONAL PRONOUNS – PRONOMI E PREPOSIZIONI

for me	per me
for you (familiar)	per te
for you (polite)	per Lei
for him	per lui
for her	per lei
for it / for this / for that	per ciò
for us	per noi
for you (plural, familiar)	per voi
for them	per loro
to him	a lui
with her	con lei
from you / at your house	da te
without me	senza di me

31

with them	con loro
before us	prima di noi
after you	dopo di te
in front of them	davanti a loro
near you (plural)	vicino a voi
behind you	dietro di te

32

Prepositional pronouns (also called stress pronouns) are the only types of object pronouns that can be used after prepositions. These stress pronouns are also used after verbs (instead of in front of verbs as is the case in normal speech) when you want to place extra emphasis on the pronoun.

LESSON 24

POSSESSIVE ADJECTIVES – AGGETTIVI POSSESSIVI

my suitcase	la mia valigia
my suitcases	le mie valigie
your suitcase (familiar)	la tua valigia
your suitcases (familiar)	le tue valigie
your suitcase (polite)	la Sua valigia
your suitcases (polite)	le Sue valigie
his suitcase / her suitcase	la sua valigia
his suitcases / her suitcases	le sue valigie
our suitcase	la nostra valigia
our suitcases	le nostre valigie
your suitcase (plural)	la vostra valigia
your suitcases (plural)	le vostre valigie
their suitcase	la loro valigia

their suitcases	le loro valigie
my gift	il mio regalo

our husbands	i nostri mariti
his car / her car	la sua macchina
your car	la tua macchina
their car	la loro macchina

33

your car (plural)	la vostra macchina
my father	mio padre
my mother	mia madre

34

In Italian, possessive adjectives agree in gender (masculine or feminine) and number (singular or plural) with the object possessed, not the gender of the possessor, as is the case in English.

As you can see by these examples, the definite article (“la”, “il”, “i”, “le”) is part of the possessive adjective except when talking about relatives. (Exceptions: plural nouns; modified nouns; the nouns “mamma” and “papà”; and the pronoun “loro” always use an article).

CONJUNCTIONS AND SIMILAR WORDS – CONGIUNZIONI E PAROLE SIMILI

and	e
or	o / oppure
also	anche / pure
but	ma / però
maybe / perhaps	forse
because	perché

Be careful! / Stay attentive!	Sta' attento!
Speak slowly , please. (familiar)	Parla lentamente , per favore.
Repeat , please. (polite)	Ripeta , per favore.

“alla” = “a” + “la”

“sul” = “su” + “il”

“dagli” = “da” + “gli”

“c’è” = “ci” + “è” = “there is”

“perdonami” = “perdona” + “mi” = “[you] pardon” + “me”

When asking for a menu at a restaurant, use the plural form of “you” as in “Do you guys have a menu?”

“di” and “da” are nearly interchangeable, but their use often depends on the following verb. In the above examples, notice that “di” is used with the verb “essere” (to be), and “da” is used with the verb “venire” (to come).

LESSON 27

SENTENCES AND PHRASES, NEGATIVE – FRASI NEGATIVE

I want	Voglio ...
I do not want... ..	Non Voglio...
I would like	Vorrei ...

48

The verb "to be" (essere) and the verb "to have" (avere) (next lesson) are the two most commonly used verbs in Italian. It is important to learn these two verbs well.

Subject pronouns ("io", "tu", "Lei", "lui", "lei", "noi", "voi", "Loro", "loro") are optional in Italian. They are frequently not used because the ending of the verb or the verb form (conjugation) tells you which person it is referring to.

LESSON 37

THE VERB "AVERE" (to have) (present tense) – IL VERBO "AVERE" (presente indicativo)

I have a book.	Io ho un libro.
You are hungry. / You have hunger. (familiar)	Tu hai fame.

 The children are talking to their mother. I bambini parlano con la loro mamma.
 You speak too quickly for me. (plural) Voi parlate troppo rapidamente per me.
 Please speak slowly. Per favore, parli lentamente.

In Italian there are three forms of regular verbs. These regular verbs have either “are”, “ere”, or “ire” endings in the infinitive form. (The infinitive is the form marked by “to” in English such as: to go; to look; to run; to buy; to sell 49 etc.) To conjugate regular verbs with “are” endings in the present tense, simply drop the “are” and attach the appropriate ending as shown above and below. Endings depend on the subject noun and are as follows:

Subject	Ending
io	parl(o)
tu	parl(i)
lui, lei, Lei	parl(a)
noi	parl(iamo)
voi	parl(ate)
loro, Loro	parl(ano)

Irregular verbs follow different spelling rules and must be learned individually.

As you can see from these examples, “I am speaking” and “I speak” can both be translated to “Io parlo”. Italian also uses a more complex form called the present progressive tense to express action happening now. For example, “I am speaking now.” can be translated as “Io sto parlando ora.” This more complex form uses appropriate conjugation of the verb “stare” (“to stay” or “to be”) plus the gerund of the verb being used. Using the present tense (present indicative) as shown in the examples in this lesson does not express “action happening now” as precisely, but it will work fine in most situations.

LESSON 39

TYPICAL REGULAR VERB WITH “ERE” ENDING (present tense) – VERBI REGOLARI IN “ERE” (presente indicativo)

to sell vendere
 I sell newspapers. / I am selling newspapers. Io vendo giornali.

You sell magazines. / You are selling magazines. (familiar)	Tu vendi riviste.
You sell magazines. (polite)	Lei vende riviste.
You are selling your car. (familiar)	Vendi la tua macchina.
He sells meat.	Lui vende carne.
She sells vegetables.	Lei vende verdura.
We are selling our tickets.	Noi vendiamo i nostri biglietti.
You sell traveler's checks. (plural)	Voi vendete traveler's chèques.
They sell nice things.	Loro vendono cose belle.
That store sells water.	Quel negozio vende acqua.
All the banks sell traveler's checks.	Tutte le banche vendono traveler's chèques.
We sell chicken.	Vendiamo pollo.
They sell clothes for women .	Vendono vestiti per donne .
You sell fish .	Vendi pesce .
We sell fruit .	Vendiamo frutta .

To conjugate regular verbs with "ere" endings in the present tense, simply drop the "ere" and attach the appropriate ending as shown above and below. Endings depend on the subject noun and are as follows:

Subject	Ending
io	vend(o)
tu	vend(i)
lui, lei, Lei	vend(e)
noi	vend(iamo)
voi	vend(ete)
loro, Loro	vend(ono)

51

As you can see from these examples, "I am selling" and "I sell" can both be translated to "Io vendo." Italian also uses a more complex form called the present progressive tense to express action happening now. For example, "I am selling" can be translated as "Io sto vendendo". This more complex form uses appropriate conjugation of the verb "stare" ("to stay" or "to be") plus the gerund of the verb being used. Using the present tense (present indicative) as shown in the examples in this lesson does not express "action happening now" as precisely, but it will work fine in most situations.
